

Charlotte Parker

Charlie is a mental health nurse and has worked in the field of mental health and substance misuse for the past 12 years. Initially in an acute inpatient setting, then in community drug and alcohol services and more recently at the Birmingham liver unit primarily working with transplant candidates with alcohol or substance misuse disorders and mental health issues. She works in inpatient and outpatient settings running nurse led clinics for patients both pre and post-transplant and assesses patients' suitability for transplant. She has completed an MSc in the Treatment of Substance Misuse and investigated motivation, engagement and treatment outcomes for her dissertation.