

Dr Mark Hudson

Newcastle Upon Tyne Hospital NHS Trust, UK

Mark Hudson is the Vice President Hepatology of the British Society of Gastroenterology and a past President of the British Association for the Study of the Liver (BASL). He was appointed Consultant Hepatologist & Gastroenterologist in 1995, and subsequently the Clinical Lead for Hepatology and medical lead for Liver Transplantation. Dr Hudson is a member of The Northern Senate Council. In 2010 he wrote the Hepatology curriculum for gastroenterology and subspecialty training in advanced Hepatology. He is a member of the NHSBT Liver Advisory Group and is a senior author on the Lancet Commission.